You further agree to grant a security interest to third parties over Client Assets in order to recover debts where the debts relate to (i) You, and (ii) the provision of service by that third party to You.
- 5.2) We may divest Ourselves of unclaimed Client Assets in accordance with the requirements as set out in FCA Rules. Under the FCA Rules the Custodian may either (i) liquidate an unclaimed Client Asset it holds, at market value, and pay away the proceeds or (ii) pay away an unclaimed Client Asset it holds, in either case, to a registered charity of its choice provided it has held that Client Asset for at least 12 years; in the 12 years preceding the divestment of that Client Asset it has not received instructions relating to any Client Asset from or on behalf of the Customer concerned; and it has taken reasonable steps to trace the Customer concerned.

- 6.4) We may hold Client Money with a third party deposit taker in an unbreakable time deposit account up to the maximum allowed by the FCA Rules. Each Client's cash may be placed on a mix of terms – between instant access and unbreakable term deposit up to 90 days (or the maximum). The mix of terms will be balanced by Us to deliver an appropriate combination of interest, diversification of risk and timely access to cash at the individual Client level. In the event that We place too much money on a time deposit it may take longer to return some cash to Clients.
- 6.5) In the event of an insolvency of a third party deposit taker, any shortfall in Client Money will be pooled with other client money of the deposit taker and then distributed proportionately. (See FSCS contact information in clause 4.6 above).
- 6.6) We will hold qualifying money market funds You elect to purchase as safe custody assets and not as Client Money. As a result, the qualifying money market funds will not be held in accordance with the client money rules but instead in accordance with the custody rules as set out by the FCA.

- 6.7) We may allow another person such as an exchange, a clearing house or an intermediate broker, to hold or control Client Money, but only where this is required for the purpose of a transaction for the Client through or with that person or to meet an obligation of the Client to provide collateral for a transaction. In the event of a shortfall following any default of such person, You may not receive your full entitlement and may share in that shortfall pro rata. We will inform You and provide further details if this is to occur.
- 6.8) We may arrange for Client Money to be held in a bank outside the United Kingdom. Where we do so, Your rights in relation to that money will differ from those applicable under the United Kingdom regulatory regime.

- 6.11) Where We transfer any part of the custody services We provides to You to another appropriately authorised institution chosen by Us, You authorise Us to transfer any Client Money held for You to that appropriately authorised institution provided the transferee agrees to hold the Client Money in accordance with the FCA Rules
- 6.12) We may cease to treat any unclaimed balance allocated to You as Client Money in accordance with the requirements as set out in the FCA Rules. We may pay away to a registered charity of Our choice a Client Money balance which is allocated to You and if We do so the released balance will cease to be Client Money provided We have held the balance concerned for at least six years following the last movement on Your account (disregarding any payment or receipt of interest, charges or similar items); and We have taken reasonable steps to trace You to return the balance.

- 7.3) We reserve the right to reverse any such credit at any time before actual receipt of the item associated with the credit when We determine in Our reasonable judgement that actual receipt may not be received for that item. Where it is possible We will give advance notice of the reversal (but it shall not be obliged to do so where We determine We need to act sooner or where Our ability to recover may be compromised). Where there is any requirement of reversal of previously advanced cash We may charge the appropriate Client Money account for the expense of providing funds associated with the advance pursuant to clause 6.2 and 6.3 of these Terms.
